CHICAGO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

JOCKEY BLOSS RULED OFF.

After the third race at Lakeside yesterday Judge Hamilton took sharp action in ruling off jockey Bloss, who rode the 2 to 5 favorite, May Beach. The filly was giving away great chunks of weight to all but White Ivy, and considering that she never was of much account on a muddy track, there is apparently a possibility that Bloss is a victim of circumstances.

The boy has not ridden much of late, fearing, so he says, that the judges were hostile to him. His friends, however, convinced him that this was idle talk, and since the Lakeside meeting opened he has had a great many mounts, May Beach being the best horse by far that he has had a chance to ride.

Why the filly was at such a short price under the track conditions is a mystery. The book-makers claim that she was but slightly backed. That is not a suspicious circumstance. Racegoers nowadays as a rule want even money or better for their bets or they do not wager much.

At the post May Beach acted sourly and it was hard to get her to face the barrier, and in false breaks she did not seem to show her usual amount of speed. When the start was made she was fourth, and only for an instant on the turn did she ever better her position. Bloss seemed to be riding her hard when he rounded the turn for home, but instead of gaining on the leaders the filly kept dropping back, and it was evident that she was laboring in the going. The race was won by Hugh Penny, who is a nine-year-old horse, and was in at 104 pounds. May Beach is a three-year-old and she carried 114.

After the boys had weighed in, judge Hamilton called Bloss up and asked him what his instructions were from owner Wood about riding May Beach. Bloss stated that Wood instructed him to get off in front if he could and make every post a winning one. Hamilton did not wait to hear any more, but promptly ruled Bloss off the turf.

Bloss has been under suspicion since last fall, when rumor had it that he made a fortune at the Lakeside meeting, but it is hardly likely that this had anything to do with his being landed over the May Beach race.

Master Vittoe was in excellent riding form and so was Mitchell, and between them they cleared up the card. Vittoe piloted the first three winners and Mitchell the last three.

As is the rule on a slushy, muddy track the races were not closely contested and each winner came home alone. Favorites were turned down with a marked regularity, only two, Innovator in the first race and David in the last, surviving.

In the mile and a quarter event George Lee suddenly improved and at 3 to 1 won like a stake horse.

The veteran "Uncle Jim" Gray got his winter money in the fifth race. He has said right along that in Macie Maree he had a good filly, but she has not been herself all summer and "Uncle Jim" was getting ready to sour on her but after she beat The Monk and Kittie G. so easily it is safe to say that Macie Maree will winter on Mr. Gray's farm.

From a fast to a muddy track Volandies transforms into almost a stake horse, and the way he beat Macy in the fourth event, which was at a mile, was a caution. He went to the front early and the farther he went the more did he increase his lead.

After Hugh Penny came cantering home the easiest kind of a winner Sydney Bender was the sorest man on the grounds. He trains the old horse and intended to bet on him, but "Kid" Weller and Leo Mayer talked him out of the notion, saying there that was no way for May Beach to lose.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The attention of horse owners is called to the advertisement of the meeting to be given at Birmingham, Ala., by the Alabama State Board of Agriculture. It begins next Tuesday and will run up to the commencement of racing at New Orleans. Birmingham is a lively and progressive city that is at present enjoying a remarkably high tide of prosperity, a condition that is bound to conduce to the success of the near-by meeting. Racing here under present weather conditions is attended with discomforts that will be absent there because of its more genial climate. It will be observed that men of practical experience and high reputation in connection with racing have been selected to conduct the various departments of the meeting—a circumstance that should commend it to the favor of owners of horses that are to be taken south. Concerning this meeting yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer said:

"Judging from present outlook the meeting at Birmingham, Ala., will open up with a boom next Tuesday. A number of stables contemplate going there and plenty of horses will be on hand. The following owners shipped last night: Hank Combs, Scott Harlan, Whittaker & Parrish and G. Van Studdiford. Later on during the week W. H. Laird & Brother, R. Bronaugh, J. W. Hartell, P. Browning, W. M. Wallace, C. Thompson, J. Neil, Henry Simons, J. Bagley and some few others will ship their strings. Gratz Hanley telegraphed that there is stallroom for 250 horses. Much interest is being taken in the coming meeting by the citizens of Birmingham."

Abe and J. C. Cahn, the well-known St. Louis turfmen, have just purchased the Thompson farm of ninety acres, eleven miles from the city, on the St. Charles Rock road, for $16,000 and will expend that much more converting the place into a first-class stock farm. John Garcia, who formerly trained for Stifel & Schorr when they raced the famous Gambrinus Stable, has been installed as superintendent of the Cahn farm. Several new barns are to be built on the place, and the fences and all other buildings on the farm are to be thoroughly overhauled and placed in first-class condition.

The Cahn brothers will turn out a number of their horses for the winter at the farm. All of their yearlings, numbering nearly thirty, however, will be wintered at the Memphis track. Six of Abe Cahn's youngsters are already at Louisville, in charge of Charles T. Patterson, who developed Ornament, Saison, May Hempstead and other noted thoroughbreds. Mr. Patterson will ship them to Memphis, along with his own horses, in the near future. Abe Cahn owns a number of well-known producing mares that have heretofore been quartered at Joseph D. Lucas' Goodwood Stud, in St. Louis county. Among the bunch is the dam of Thrive, who showed to be a good colt this season.—St. Louis Republic.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Another car load of horses from Chicago reached Oakland recently. G. W. Scott brought back San Mateo and Garter. E. W. Fogg had Go to Bed and Midian, O. P. Romigh, Mocorite and Defiance, and J. W. O'Neill, Frank Bell and Gussie Fay in the car.

The Washington Jockey Club has decided to return to the old flag method of starting horses. At its coming autumn meeting the barrier gate will be abandoned.

Mr. Charles F. Price arrived at San Francisco Tuesday and entered upon the discharge of his duties as presiding steward at the Oakland racetrack.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. P. Norton, owner of the Latonia Oaks winner, May Hempstead, has arrived at the Newport track. During the eastern season he sold all of his older horses with the exception of the crack daughter of Patron and the good two-year-old filly, Lady Contrary, which he bought in the spring from A. H. & D. H. Morris.
Gene Leigh has Mr. Norton's good pair, and,
with the rest of the Leigh lot, they will winter
in the east.

M. S. Hughes, who developed jockey Dominick at the Fair Grounds last summer, has returned from Chicago with Eight Bells and is preparing to ship Lady Callahan and the rest of his stable to New Orleans for the winter.
Lady Callahan has enjoyed a let-up since the local racing season closed last August.—St.
Louis Republic.

Ben Holladay is in winter quarters at Mr.
Eastin's farm near Avon, Ky., and it is stated that he will enter stud service next spring.
This magnificent staying son of Hanover should in time succeed to the crown of his dead sire if all that goes to make worth in a racehorse is to meet its due reward.

Secretary Sheridan Clark will make long distance races one of the features at Newport and on Saturday he expects to have a mile and six furlongs affair on the card. Next week he will put several long distance races on the program,
one being at two miles.

The 10-year-old stallion, Ludwig, by Darebin, was destroyed recently on account of his mean temper. Ludwig belonged to Gideon & Daly and stood at their Holmdel farm in New Jersey.
He had a fairly successful career as a racehorse.

Sea Lion of the Echorr string had an attack of lung fever soon after the stable arrived at Frisco, but is now on the mend.

Winner—Br. c. by Badge—Bellegarde.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second and third also driving. Bell Punch was much the best. He went all around his field and finished strongly. The Bondman was cut off on the back stretch. He was closing fast at the end. Hill Billy and Nellie Prince raced each other to exhaustion.

Bell Punch, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. The Bondman, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Siddubia, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1.

Disqualified for foul. Time, 25.1, 52.1, 1:05.1, 1:21.2. Winner—Ch. g. by Riley—Innovation. Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. There was a lot of action behind the winner. Innovator revealed in the going and held the others safe all the way. This was the first time in many starts that the colt has not met with sharp interference. Lovable had no excuse. She got away flying and had clear sailing, but tired badly in the stretch. She was disqualified for impeding Morris Volmer in the final furlong. The latter ran a good race, and had he not been hampered would have given Innovator an argument. Olekma is fast, but seems faint-hearted. Tom Gilmore had no chance from where he got away. Myrtle Gebauer seems to be of no present account.

Overweights—Lovable, 24 pounds. Innovator, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Morris Volmer, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Olekma, show, 3 to 1.

15464 SECOND RACE—1 1-4 Miles. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Br. g. by St. George—Levee. Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving to the limit. George Lee improved suddenly and ran a cracking good race. After going the first mile he had the others safely beaten. Chancery liked the sloppy going, showed fine speed and made a game struggle through the stretch. Only a bad ride kept Monongah from being second. Patterson let him swerve badly through the stretch. Holdup was raced into submission by Chancery in the first seven furlongs. Joe Shelby finished strongly. Admetus ran a bad race. He is a bad horse. The other two were outclassed. Scratched—(15420) Harry Nutter, 107; 15326 Pitfall, 105; 15394 Pan Charm, 104. Winner—B. g. by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward. Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won running away; second handily; third, fourth and fifth were driving hard. Hugh Penny got away running and showed the speed of his prime. He was a good horse today. Vitito took no chances and ran off as far as he could. Rey Salazar ran a good race. He is a hot horse in the mud. Goebel ran about to his notch. He is not the horse he was in the spring. Loyal Prince did fairly well. So did Uncas, who was overweighted. May Beach never was of much account in the mud, and taking everything into consideration, her race was not so far out of line. She was a false 2 to 5 chance. The judges ruled Bloss off for his ride on her. Scratched—15420 Sam Lazarus, Eq., 106; 15302 Grey John, 119; 15442 Farley, 119. Overweights—The Chemist, 3 pounds; Uncas, 2. Winner—B. c. by Volante—Mamie Fonso. Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second whipped out; the next four were under keen pressure. Volandies is a handy horse in the mud and he made his field look cheap. Mitchell got the colt away flying and took no chances. Macy could never get to Volandies. He is nowhere near the good horse he used to be. Elidad made up a lot of ground throughout and finished like a cyclone. Tillie W. ran a good, game race. So did Jimp, who was knock-d completely out of it on the first turn. The latter does not fancy a muddy track. Catastrophe and Jessie Jarboe both did well as far as they went. There was a general mix-up on the first turn. In this King Bermuda suffered a lot. This horse seems to have gone back. Scratched—15417 Lady Osborn, 89; (15388) Pay the Fiddler, 100; 15396 Pat Garrett, 89; 15396 Uhler, 89; 15422 Wilson, 101. Overweights—Dad Steele, 5 pounds; Catastrophe, 2; Volandies, 3. Volandies, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Macy, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Elidad, show, evens. Jimp, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by King Regent—Eva. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand. Behind the winner the next five were driving to the limit. Macie Maree got away in front and played with her field. She won like a good filly. The Monk was unfortunate in getting away and perhaps ran as good a race as did the winner. He is an unlucky youngster. Kitty G. is strictly a mud-lark. She stood a terrific drive all through the stretch game. Supreme showed speed, but quit badly under pressure in the stretch. Yolocho ran a bad race. The judges questioned Vitito about his ride, but took no action. Overweights—Hi Nocker, 3 pounds; Maharajah, 3; Fair Test, 3. Macie Maree, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. The Monk, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Kitty G., show, 3 to 1. Yolocho, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Wawakus—Treasure Trove. Off at first break break to a good start. Won easily; second the same; third and fourth were driving to the limit. David was best and in a soft spot and made a runaway race of it. He was favored with a running start but did not need it to win. The old horse is fresh and good now and can beat better ones. Highland Prince was right there all the way and hung on gamely at the end. Mark Zacatoso for early action. His rush through the stretch was a fast one. Del Paso II ran a much better race than the figures show. At one time on the far turn he seemed dangerous. Banish was the victim of a bad ride. Lode Star came with a great rush in the homestretch. Sorrow barely managed to get third place in the last stride. Rio Chico was speedy for three furlongs, but quit in the stretch. It was too much weight for Wyoming to handle successfully. He ran well for a half mile, however.
